Profile

Raised in Green River, Julia Stuble eagerly moved to Lander in 2012. She is active in the Lander Rotary Club and serves on the boards of the Alliance for Historic Wyoming and Equality State Policy Center. A proud graduate of the University of Wyoming, she leads The Wilderness Society's public land and energy campaigns for Wyoming. She likes spending as much time as possible with her husband Josh and daughter Billie under Wyoming's blue skies (and also likes toast with jam). She's not great at Facebook, more than adequate at email, and keen to meet and chat at any time.
